

U.S. Foreign Policy Compliance Statement

Prometric, including its foreign subsidiaries and locations, must comply with all sanctions/restrictions imposed by the US Department of the Treasury, Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC).

As of December 1, 2007, the following guidelines apply:

A. Prohibition Against Delivery of Tests in Sanctioned Countries:

The United States has imposed sanctions against doing business with certain countries. Prometric may not deliver tests (either through IT testing sites (APTCs), AP&C testing sites (PTCs), Internet-based testing sites, or mobile testing) in any of the countries listed below:

- Cuba
- Iran
- North Korea
- Sudan
- Syria

B. Testing Citizens of Sanctioned Countries Outside the Sanctioned Country / Payment Originating Outside the Sanctioned Countries:

Prometric may deliver tests to citizens of the sanctioned countries listed below provided the citizens are tested outside the sanctioned country and payment for the test originates outside the sanctioned country:

- Iran
- Sudan
- Syria

Prometric may not accept payment originating from a bank or financial institution in the above-listed countries.

For Example: If an Iranian citizen presents him/herself at a testing center in a non-sanctioned country and produces ID with an Iranian address and payment drawn on an Iranian bank, we may not deliver a test to that individual. Should the same Iranian citizen present ID at a testing center in a non-sanctioned country with an Iranian address and payment drawn from a bank originating from a non-sanctioned country, we may deliver a test to that individual.

C. Testing Citizens of Sanctioned Countries Outside the Sanctioned Country / Payment Originating Inside or Outside the Sanctioned Country:

Prometric may deliver tests to citizens of the sanctioned countries listed below provided the citizens are tested outside the sanctioned country. Payment for the test may originate outside or inside the sanctioned country:

- North Korea

Prometric may accept payment from a financial institution originating within North Korea.

D. Testing Citizens of Cuba

Cuban citizens cannot be tested anytime or anywhere, unless they are permanent resident aliens of the United States and possess a valid and unexpired United States Permanent Resident Card (green card).

Prometric may not accept payment originating from a bank or financial institution in Cuba.

Any violations of the US-imposed sanctions may result in severe corporate and/or individual criminal penalties.

E. SDN List – Blocked Assets/Restrictions against Business Transactions with individuals and groups

Additionally, OFAC has imposed restrictions against conducting business with, or has blocked the assets of, certain individuals and groups of individuals within the countries listed below, and any groups or individuals suspected of terrorist activity. These individuals and groups appear on OFAC's Specially Designated Nationals (SDN) list. Please contact the Legal and Contracts Department prior to conducting new business transactions within the following countries:

- Balkans
- Belarus
- Burma
- Cote D'Ivoire
- Democratic Republic of the Congo
- Iraq
- Liberia
- North Korea
- Zimbabwe
